GOV. HANLY'S APPEAL TO ALL

A Convincing Presentation of the Pressing Political Issues of Indiana

Impassioned Appeal to Voter's Conscience for a Clean Election and a Fair Ballot

Tipton, Ind., Sept. 25.—Governor J. Frank Hanly opened the Indiana Republican campaign in this city last night, addressing an audience which tested the capacity of the Tipton Opera House. The governor's notable address received the most careful attention on the part of his great audience, which was deeply impressed with the force of his arguments, which were chiefly confined to state issues. The governor said in part:

I wish to speak tonight not only to you who are here assembled, but to the men and women of Indiana, without regard to their political beliefs or their party affiliations. My appeal is to all—to the business man, to the wage-earner, to the professional man, to the employers, to the employee, to the farmer, to the manufacturer, to every citizen wherever he may be, whatever vocation he may follow, and whatever his conviction. I would that my appeal be accepted as a personal one to each of my fellow-citizens throughout the state. I want that the responsibility of decision shall rest upon each of you individually, and I would, if I could, so rivet that responsibility to your conscience that you must needs carry it with you until you stand in the isolation of the election booth in November.

I want that you strip your mind of partisan bias; I want passion stilled; personality forgotten; and criticism hushed, that you may hear and that you may consider in sober candor and with thoughtful care what I here present. I want that this be done because I have a profound conviction if it be done, that my cause will win its way to your hearts and to your consciences and appeal to the nobler nature that lies in each of you.

A General Review.

Governor Hanly reviewed the circumstances leading up to the appointment of an investigating committee, the discovery of the defalcation of Auditor Sherrick, and the misappropriation of funds by Secretary of State Storms and their removal from office, and after devoting some time to the subjects of private banking, the work of the tax commission, the advocacy of a two-cent passenger fare, and the elimination of free passes to public officers, the governor turned his attention to the present prudent management of the several state institutions, which he reviewed at length, and made a plea for the necessary additional appropriations for the completion of the new epileptic village. The governor advocated the enactment of a law securing to the township, city, county and state the interest accruing on all deposits of public funds. He defended the Moore amendment to the Nicholson law, and said that the administration stood for its maintenance. He discussed the stand of the administration in favor of law enforcement, and said that no legal business lawfully conducted had been disturbed by any act of the administration. In conclusion he said:

I have sought to present in such detail as the occasion has permitted a somewhat comprehensive review of the work, policies and purposes of the state administration. To this you have been kind and patient enough to listen. Now, let us sum up. I hold these things to its credit:

It has created and organized the State Railroad commission, whose work has been of great value to the public. It has enacted a private banking law in which the right of the state to supervise and examine state banks is asserted, and which has been upheld by judicial decision.

It has obtained a just and fair increase in valuation of corporate property by the state tax board.

It has given the state a remonstrance law which recognizes the right of a majority of the voters of a township or ward to remonstrate against the retail liquor traffic, making a successful remonstrance good for two years.

It has restored and maintained under trying and delicate circumstances. Continued on second page.

THE FARM IS BEST PLACE

Farmers About Only Men Able to Retire From Work With a Competence

Many of the young men who leave the farm because they think they can do better in the city, are the victims of illusions, and unfortunately of a kind seldom cured except by experience. Probably they are not aware that 90 per cent. of those who branch out into general business fail to accumulate any considerable wealth, while the positive wreckage in means, health and comfort is large. A farm is never monotonous to a good farmer. It is rather a book of fresh interest each succeeding day. A surplus at the end of a year is a rule on the farm; in the city a surplus is the exception, and the style of family living, on the whole is in favor of the country. But statistics show that plenty of boys remain on the farms. The farming population of the United States in 1900 was four times as large as in 1850, and the value of their property increased five-fold, or from $4,000,000,000 to $20,000,000,000.

MOTION TO QUASH IS OVERRULED

Judge Sparks Holds Indictment Good in the Tone Tompkins Case

Judge Sparks today gave his ruling upon the motion to quash the indictment in the case of Ton Tompkins, who is charged with a murderous assault upon Jerry Matthews in Miroy last winter and whose case is set for trial beginning Thursday of this week. Judge Sparks overruled the motion to quash the indictment thereby holding the indictment good.

SUED TO RECOVER MONEY PAID OUT

W. M. Alexander Demands $6,000 of the Gem Mill Company

William M. Alexander, today, through B. F. Miller, his attorney, filed suit in the circuit court against the Gem Flouring Mill company, John Q. Thomas and R. F. Conover to recover money alleged to have been paid out in notes on behalf of the company. He asks judgment for $6,000.

The plaintiff claims that he and Amos Blackledge endorsed four notes for the defendants, which they were compelled to pay. The notes are sums as follows: $2000, $447 90, $1825 and $5000. The sums were borrowed from the Rushville and Rush County National Banks.

MRS. CAMPBELL IS REFUSED A DIVORCE

After hearing the evidence in the case of Mattie Campbell vs. Isaac Campbell for divorce, Judge Sparks today refused the plaintiff a divorce and assessed the costs against her.

—Connersville News: Mr. Charles Glore, of Rushville, and Miss Minchen Schoenholtz went to Hamilton, Ohio, where they were joined by Miss Bertha Keller and Frank Robinson. From that city they went to Cincinnati and spent several hours Sunday.

—C. P. Talbert, of Ontario, Calif., formerly of Carthage, was in Rushville today. He has been visiting his mother and other relatives in Carthage for the past week. He will return to his home the latter part of this week, where he is engaged in the livery and transfer business.

WILL TRY TO FORECLOSE LIEN

Coats and Robertson Demand Money from the U. P.
Church Trustees

Church People Contend Contractors Violated Contract and Withhold Money

William F. Coats and George Robertson, of Columbus, doing business under the name of Coats & Robertson, today, through their attorney, John W. Morgan, also of Columbus, filed suit in the circuit court, against the United Presbyterian church, this city, through its trustees, R. A. Innis, A. F. Stewart and H. E. Barrett, demanding $4360.95, which they claim is still due them on their contract for the completion of the congregation's handsome new edifice, on North Harrison street, and asking the foreclosure of a mechanic's lien which they hold against the church.

The plaintiffs claim that the church people agreed to pay them the money within ten days after the completion of their work on the church and that they have failed to do so.

The contract between the contractors and the church trustees was drawn up June 18th, 1905. It provided that the church be completed by January 1st, 1906, and imposed a fine of $5 per day, for every day after January 1st, 1906, that the contractors failed to complete the building. The contract also provided that the trustees pay $16,127 to the contractors at stated intervals while the construction work was in progress and that they pay the remainder of the contract price within ten days after the satisfactory completion and acceptance of the entire work. It was also stipulated in the contract that 15 per cent. of the contract price should be held by the owners of the church as security for the faithful performance of the duties falling upon the contract or according to the contract.

The contract stipulated that C. A. Krusch & Co., the architects, who planned the building should settle all disputes as to the relation of the work to the plans and specifications and that two umpires, one of whom should be chosen by each party should settle all differences as to the price for extra or omitted work.

The church people claim that inasmuch as the contractors did not finish their edifice until nearly 200 days after Jan. 1st, 1906, the sum of $5 is due them for each of the 200 days. They also claim that in many places the work on the church has not been done according to the plans and specifications, especially the concrete work, and they have refused to accept the church in its present condition unless the contractors forfeit for their alleged violations of the terms in the contract.

The plaintiffs demand $5000 in their complaint, including $150 for their attorney's fee. Their lien against the church was filed August 16th last.

SAMUEL B. FOUST DEAD AT FRANKLIN

Samuel B. Foust, age 75 years, died last Friday afternoon at his home in Franklin, Ind. Mr. Foust was formerly a prominent citizen of Morristown and was in the blacksmithing business. He was well and favorably known over Rush county.

The body and funeral party arrived at Morristown Monday at 11:20 o'clock a. m. at the M. E. church with the pastor, Rev. Guthrie officiating. The Masonic order of Morristown had charge of the funeral. Mr. Foust leaves a widow and five children, two daughters and three sons.

—Connersville News: John Kellum, of the Everton neighborhood, and sister, Mrs. Sam Turner, of Glenwood, have returned from Marion, Indiana, where they were called by the death of their uncle, Peter Wilcox.

IN A PICKLE

Will be Lovers and the Little Blind God—Cupid Must Go Hungry

Lovers are going to be in a pickle for the next year. Not one large pickle for all the lovers, nor yet a separate pickle for each lover—or pair of lovers—but they will be in a general pickleless pickle. Love has long been known to be in need of the services of an oculist and there have been people who have said the little blind god was shy. But that Dan Cupid should go hungry—perish the thought! The cucumber pickle—that favorite green food of the L. B. G., which has been cultivated since the time of Moses (see Numbers 1:15)—is not plentiful this year. The crop of cucumbers is short—shorter than it has been for years.

LOCAL BREVITIES

Miss Bessie Hayes, of West Third street, has been ill of tonsillitis for the past few days, but is now better.

The divorce suit filed by Mrs. Myrtle Kemp, against her husband, Stanley Kemp, has been dismissed.

The Rushville National Bank today filed suit against Jesse Culbertson, John S. Borders and James E. Hinchman on a note demanding $75.

T. A. Jones has gone to Cincinnati and Maysville, Ky. At the latter place he will attend the reunion of the Tenth and Sixteenth Kentucky regiments. He will also visit relatives in Flehging county before returning home.

The city Health Board has found it necessary to notify some of the city's meat markets to clean up their places of business. Emmett L. Kennedy, of this city, has been awarded the contract for building the overhead trestle bridge at Oak street in Connersville. This bridge will be across the big cut of the I. & C. at the top of the hill coming out of Connersville.

The organization of a company of the Indiana National Guard at Shelbyville is gradually taking shape. The prospects for a company in Rushville are very discouraging owing to a total lack of interest and public spirit. Fifty-three men were enlisted here, but those who have had the matter in charge have been unable to get more and have about concluded to give up the attempt.

As Mr. and Mrs. James Lock and children were driving down Main street this morning two negroes came racing up the street in two buggies. One of the negroes collided with the carriage driven by Mr. Lock. No damage was done except the breaking of the shafts of one of the buggies. Mr. Lock tried to find out who the negroes were, but was unable to do so. Racing on the streets should not be tolerated in Rushville.

Connersville News: Misses Ruby Reed, Rose Hauck, Rufus Seward and family Harry Hunt, Robert Jemison, Frank Deters, Lottie Kitchen and Guy Hopkins and son, Kenneth, spent Sunday at Rushville visiting friends and relatives.

Connersville News: Don Robinson, of Indianapolis, Miss Helen Campbell, of Rushville, Misses Frederica G. Faulkner and Bess Bosler, of the city, and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Robinson, west of the city, were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Frazee, at "The Pines," yesterday.

The work of laying brick for the walls of the new high school building will begin next Monday. The brick work will be done by Sanders & Co., of Portland, and the stone work will be done by Illingworth & Co., of Muncie.

Miss Ruby Norris gave a five-course dinner Sunday evening to the following guests: Misses Frankie Clark, Hazel Lytle, Hazel Cox, Mary and Marguerite Neutenheller Frances Capp and Martha Hogsett.

—Charles F. Wilson returned today from a visit with friends at Indianapolis and Greensburg. He will leave tomorrow for Northwestern University.

WANT BENEFIT OF THE LAW

Indiana Traction Officials Interested in Work in Other States

Desire to Bring Their Properties Under the State Commissioners Jurisdiction

The Indianapolis & Cincinnati Traction line when completed from this city to Cincinnati will come under the class of electric lines doing interstate business. The road will then probably come under the jurisdiction of the Interstate Commerce Commission, if by that time the commission has assumed control of the interstate lines as requested by several.

Traction men of Indiana are interested in the attempt on the part of traction officials of other States, whose lines are engaged in interstate commerce, to induce the Interstate Commerce Commission to assume jurisdiction over them. If the government becomes general among interurban men to have their lines included within the provisions of the new rate law, traction men of this State will do what they can toward aiding in bringing about recognition by the Interstate Commerce Commissioners.

The object of electric line men in desiring to bring their properties under the jurisdiction of the commission is to secure the benefit of Section 3 of the law, which prohibits common carriers from discriminating in their rates and charges between their connecting lines. The electric lines are charging that steam roads are unlawfully refusing to make through rates in conjunction with them, similar to those they make with other steam lines. It is even charged that the passenger associations have adopted resolutions forbidding any of their members from making through freight or passenger rates with the electric lines as a railroad and a common carrier, and are not entitled to the benefits of the new law.

The Chicago & Milwaukee electric railroad has taken the first step toward having this question settled, by filing with the Interstate Commission copies of its tariff, the first ever filed by an electric line. This action will be followed by an application to one of the steam lines to join in making a through rate. If the steam road refuses the electric line will make appeal to the commission.

The traction men of Indiana have long desired that an arrangement be made whereby the steam roads would interchange business with electric lines. It would be a great boon to them and to the traveling public. The steam roads have consistently refused, however, to recognize the tractions, knowing probably, that the low fares charged by the electric lines would result in a rate reduction, and that the plan would give certain roads entry into territory now controlled by other lines.

With a reduction of the rate of fare to a flat 2-cent basis by the steam roads, as is expected to come within a few months, the main objection now held by the steam roads against an interchange of business with electric lines, namely, that a cut in fares would follow, would probably be eliminated.

There are several traction lines in Indiana doing an interstate business, namely the Dayton & Western, the Cincinnati, Lawrenceburg & Aurora, the Dayton & Muncie and the Ft. Wayne, Van Wert & Lima.

MRS. GILSON IS GIVEN A DIVORCE

The divorce case of Mrs. Hannah Gilson vs. Andrew Gilson was tried before Judge Sparks today and the Judge awarded the plaintiff a divorce and assessed the costs against her. Mrs. Gilson charged that her husband treated her cruelly and failed to provide for her.

THE SIMPLE LIFE

Cancerous Dyspeptic and Consumptive Generation Should Eat Plain Food.

Returning from the heart of darkest Africa, where he has been studying from observation on the spot the diet and health of the natives, Dr. Senn springs on a cancerous, dyspeptic, consumptive generation the time worn prescription to eat less make it plain goods. The doctor says that among the pygmies whom he met with disease is quite unknown.

Speaking of cancer more especially Dr. Senn says that if civilized man would eat only plain food and but little of that the terrible malady would disappear. The diet cure has often accomplished wonders. Experts are more and more inclining to the view that we eat ourselves sick and starve ourselves well. What applies to solid food applies equally to potables, for we drink too much as often as we eat too much.

TICKET AGENT SAID TO BE SHORT

Traction Company's Man at Shelbyville Hurriedly
Leaves Town

Today's Shelbyville Morning News says: "The Indianapolis and Cincinnati traction office at this place has more trouble keeping ticket agents than any other office in the surrounding country. A few months ago, the local agent suicided because of a shortage in his funds and on Monday, Will Cheney, who has been here since the young man suicided, left town with his wife under rather hurried circumstances, due, it is claimed, to a shortage of $160 at the local office.

"The climax came like a thunderbolt from a clear sky at nine o'clock on Monday, when the young wife was first told of the calamity which had been brewing for the past two months. "While it is not officially stated there was a shortage, yet the fact that there was an auditing committee here on Monday and the hasty departure from this city on Monday night at eleven o'clock of Cheney and his wife seems to point favorably to such facts."

CHURCH NEWS

—A protracted meeting will begin at the Shiloh Christian church next Sunday.

—Christian Scientists hold services in the court house assembly room Sunday morning at 10:45 and Wednesday evening at 7:45. The public is cordially invited.

—A meeting will be held at the First Presbyterian church this evening for the purpose of perfecting an organization of the Brotherhood in this city.

—Rev. W. P. McGarey, pastor of the United Presbyterian church, this city, is expected home this week from Sparta, Ill., where he has been assisting in conducting a series of revival meetings.

—Harry K. Shields, the singing evangelist, who will assist Rev. F. B. Thomas with the revival meeting which begins at Little Flatrock Christian church next Sunday, will arrive in time for chorus practice at the church tomorrow evening.

—Mrs. C. F. Kennedy, Mrs. Walter Howe, Mrs. P. M. Dill, Mrs. Irving Dean, Mrs. P. C. Jacobs, Mrs. Elmer Elston, Mrs. Frank Carvin, Mrs. H. E. Hadley, Mrs. A. M. Raysdale, and Mrs. J. B. Heath, of Indianapolis; Mrs. L. C. Wink and Mrs. M. S. Reddick, of Knightstown, and Mrs. H. G. Murphy, of Muncie, Ind., are guests today of Mrs. Ora Wilson on North Main street.

Economy and stinginess look something alike; but they belong to different families.

NEGROES FIRED ON POLICEMAN

One Officer Killed and Four Wounded in Fight at Atlanta and Five Negroes Slain

Atlanta, Ga., Sept. 25.—On South Atlanta, last night, race rioting was resumed and at least five negroes and one white policeman were killed.

County Policeman Heard, with ten deputies, went to South Atlanta to disperse a crowd of negroes. The negroes fired on them and Policeman Heard fell dead with a bullet through his heart. Policeman Jordan was wounded in the head and may die. Policemen Odom and Eubanks and Ernest Smith a citizen, also were wounded. The officers returned the fire and at least five negroes were killed and several others wounded. Three policemen are missing.

Two negroes were killed in this city last night.

Mrs. Caro Thompson, who saw a negro killed, fainted and died.

The courts have taken a hand in connection with the riot of Saturday night. In the city police court, yesterday, Judge Broyles inflicted the extreme sentence of the law on six young white men charged with inciting to riot, giving each 30 days in jail and binding them over to the higher courts under $1000 bonds. The grand jury brought in true bills against two negroes charged with assault with intent to commit criminal assault on two young white women.

The 600 State soldiers here are arresting every negro who is found carrying arms. Already 375 have been arrested and sent to police headquarters which is literally packed with rioters. One negro who sought to break through the cordon of troopers was riddled with bullets.

SCHOOL NOTES.

Willie Beale is the smallest pupil in high school.

The high school team will have football practice every evening at 2:30 p. m., except Saturday.

The high school will convene at 8 a. m. and continue until 11:30 a. m., and in the afternoon will begin at 1:15 p. m., dismissing at 2:15 p. m.

Prof. Martin, of this city, is substituting as English teacher for Miss Olive Traylor, who is unable to attend to her duties on account of sickness. Miss Traylor will probably be unable to attend school for the next two weeks.

The beginning class in the high school is composed of Ellis Downey, James Morris, Leona Smith, Zelah Hardin, Archie Roam, Alta Demmer, Nellie Wyle, Mary Houchmin, Marian Wilson, Biddie Houchmin, Myron Ball, Woodford Casady, Willie Beale, Lorene Smith, Grace Megee, Blanche Armstrong, Zora Carney, Florine Gwener, Pauline Coverston, Lucile Meredith, Fannie Ramey, Ruth Spivey, Helen Wilson, Herschel Davis, Paul McIntosh, Marie Muire, Ben French, Ethel Young, Erema Wilk, Ernest Norris, making a total of 31. This is the largest class that has entered high school in two years.

RUSHVILLE, IND., SEPT. 25, 1906

You have been seeing us climb. We ourselves have made the rounds to the ladder of our success. Of what? Buying good goods; selling good goods at only reasonable profits; dealing squarely—giving all customers the same price; standing behind everything we sell; treating our patrons with courtesy; and, as you know, by attending to our business and carrying the stock. Good intentions come only out of the head; good goods must come out of a good store that is able to get good goods; we enjoy our business. Activity, progress, is enjoyable. We are business men, proud of our profession, and we make a profession of our business. A professional man is a man especially skilled in what he does. We have made a study dressing people; this is our profession. And this is our confession.

Education and a good, reliable moral character will often take the place of bright talents in the race for success.

The Rev. T. H. Kuhn, Democratic candidate for congress in the Sixth congressional district, says that four-fifths of the workmen of the United States are dying of slow starvation.
 What a preposterous statement for any man to make at this time, when labor is scarce in both the cities and the country, and common laborers earn $2.00 per day. Being a merciful man, the Rev. Kuhn perhaps wants to restore the conditions prevailing in this country ten years ago under the only Democratic tariff law this generation has experienced, make it quick starvation and put the poor workman out of his misery.

The Shelbyville Liberal, a Democratic paper, in one of its issues last week says: "In the First National Bank of Shelbyville there are $824,000 on deposit, $524,000 as deposits subject to check and $300,000 on time certificates of deposit. Of this vast sum, The Liberal is informed, 75 per cent belongs to the farmers of Shelby county. Another feature that the Farmers' National and the Shelby National have something like $650,000 similarly deposited and doubtless belongs to the farmers of Shelby county.
 In addition to this there are $100,000 deposited in the Morrisown State Bank, The Bank at Waldron, The National Bank at Fairland and the Bank of St. Paul. In total there are $1,550,000 in the banks of Shelbyville and Shelby county belonging to the farmers. These figures indicate the greatest prosperity ever known among Shelby county farmers." What is true in Shelby county is true throughout the remainder of the State. Is it possible that there is a farmer in all Hoosierdom that wants to get back on the 1896 basis?

integrity in the administration of public office.

It has exposed and removed from office unfaithful public servants.

It has collected and returned to the state treasury, principal and interest, and without loss to the state, the moneys these officers had misappropriated.

It has laid bare and broken up a system of speculation and sequestration of official fees and public moneys long practiced in the administrative offices of the state.

It has uncovered the misappropriation of public moneys by officials whose terms have long expired, instituted suit for the recovery of the money where such officers are alive and solvent, and in one instance recovered judgment therefor.

It has corrected errors in the tax settlements made by insurance companies, and secured the repayment of the money due the state.

It has maintained the non-partisan management of the state institutions and is engaged in the construction of new institutions commensurate with the needs of the state.

It has caused the discontinuance of the acceptance and use by public officers of passes, franks and free favors from transportation, telegraph and telephone companies, and by its crusade made the practice odious among the people.

It has inaugurated in the administrative offices filled by incumbents holding commissions by its appointment, a system of accounting for interest on public funds.

It has investigated and is ready to present to the public information concerning insurance conditions of a character calculated to furnish a safe and wise basis for legislative action.

It has enforced the laws, and by appeals to the public conscience created a deeper respect and a higher regard for the law's sanctity than heretofore existed.

This and more has been accomplished.

It has not been done by the executive alone. That would have been impossible. It has only been through the support and loyalty of public officials and the expression of public sentiment in its behalf.

A Hopeful Look Forward.
 With these things done, it turns to things it hopes yet to do and for which it intends to stand.

It hopes to secure an amendment of the railroad commission law, giving additional authority to the commission, eliminating the defects in the present law, and strengthening its provisions.

It hopes to secure an amendment of the private banking law, by which the state shall be given the power of inspection and under which inspection shall be real, and not nominal.

It hopes to secure the passage of a law providing for a two-cent maximum passenger rate.

It hopes for the enactment of a law creating depositories for public funds, and requiring the payment of all interest accruing thereon into the several public treasuries of the state.

It hopes to secure provision for a system of accounting on the part of the administrative offices of the state and authority for the examination of their accounts.

It hopes to secure a revision of the laws relating to life insurance "that will designate and more closely restrict the kind and character of securities deposited with the auditor of state, limit the expenses of administering such companies, societies and associations, and provide for the complete publicity of their affairs."

It hopes to secure payment from the foreign insurance companies doing business in the state, the taxes they erroneously paid to ex-Auditor Rice and which he misappropriated.

I said it "hopes" to secure these things. I may, however, put it stronger. It intends to secure these things if executive influence and an appeal to the conscience and judgment of the citizenship of Indiana can do it.

A United, Progressive Party.

But that is not all. Back of the administration and the things which it has done and which it hopes and intends to do, is a clean and able party organization, the members of which believe in these things from principle and not as a matter of expediency.
 And back of this organization is a united, progressive, militant and triumphant party. If there was a moment when the party wavered, the time has passed. Even then it was but the tremor a brave man feels on the eve of a crisis. Now it is itself again. It was never more worthy to administer government in Indiana than it is today. It has purged itself and cleaned the house. It has put into its pledged word and into its accomplished deed the hot blood of moral purpose. It is more worthy than ever of its splendid past. Its platform is not a subterfuge upon which to get into office. Most of its provisions grew out of the experiences of the last two years, and the public needs that have been disclosed thereby.
 They are the expressed convictions of purposeful men who mean to transform them into law. Given administrative officers in accord with it and a general assembly that will support it, the administration will redeem the promises made in that platform and make history of its resolves.

On the Other Side.

On the other side, what have you?
 A party organization in the absolute control of Thomas Taggart of French Lick and Alonzo Greene Smith, erstwhile plunderer of public revenues.
 In all sincerity I ask, "What can you hope to accomplish with administrative officers and a legislature dominated by these men? I am not speaking of the Democratic party, but of its present day management, and of the two or three men who dominate and control it. I am well aware that they do not represent the true Democracy of Indiana. I quite agree that, if the new pure food law applied to them and they were compelled to write the true name of the goods on the package they present, they would soon go out of business. In this connection I beg to quote an accurate and forceful description of the present opposition management from a letter recently written by high Democratic authority, Hon. John W. Holtzman, late mayor of the city of Indianapolis:

"I am not finding fault with nor criticizing the Democratic party. The party is all right, but those who have been controlling it have very nearly succeeded in destroying its usefulness.
 It is generally believed that certain forces in the party are more interested in the protection of the breweries and the Monte Carlos of Indiana than in the welfare of the party."

"Through whom is the Democratic party going to start its house-cleaning? Is it to be done by those who are looking after the brewery interests of the state? Is the statehouse to be cleaned by those who want the gaming tables to continue where Auditor Sherrick lost $9,000 of the state's money?"

"Can any Democrat answer these questions? A party is not judged as much by its declaration of principles as it is by the character of the men who are entrusted with its management. There is only way of answering these questions, and that is for the state convention to remove those whom you now distrust and place men on guard in whom the entire public has confidence. There is no use in nominating men of high ideals and high purposes unless the party itself stands for honesty, cleanliness and decency."

"It is idle for us to dream of victories under a management and leadership that inspires distrust in our own ranks. It is vain for us to attack the tremendous majority in Indiana under a leadership with which the rank and file has no sympathy, and under an organization whose birth was surrounded by rumors of corruption and a general sentiment of distrust."

But the Taggart-Smith state convention did not remove the men to whom Mr. Holtzman referred in his letter. On the contrary, it seated them more firmly in the saddle than ever. Mr. Smith is still its spokesman. In behalf of the management he calls Mr. Holtzman to account in the following words:

"No, I am not in accord with you in this campaign. You are a dis-organizer, seeking to disrupt and defeat the Democratic party. You belong to the rule-or-ruin class. You have not the confidence of the rank and file of the Democratic party, and should not ask me for a certificate of your party loyalty."

Testimony of Mr. Bryan.

I beg, also to submit for your consideration the testimony of Mr. Bryan, given in the city of Chicago on the 5th inst., on the importance of character in party organization:

"The honesty of a party's purpose is shown, not merely by its platform or the speeches of its candidates and supporters, but by the character of the men who are entrusted with the party management."

I venture to suggest that the question which has arisen in Illinois has already arisen in Indiana, and to apply the language of Mr. Bryan to the present Democratic national chairman: "He asphyxiated the state convention, but I do not believe he can asphyxiate the voters of the state."

If Mr. Bryan's statement that the honesty of a party's purpose is shown by the character of the men who are entrusted with its party's management (and I take its truth to be without successful contradiction) what, I ask you, can be hoped from a Democratic triumph at the polls in November? If these men are given power they would but repeat the performance of other years. Henderson and Smith would still be Henderson and Smith.
 While these men do not constitute the Democratic party and are not representative of it, they own its organization and, in the words of spiritualistic brethren, they are its "control."

I am glad that the Democracy of Indiana is better than its management; that there are thousands of men calling themselves Democrats who believe sincerely and profoundly in the things in government for which the present administration stands. And I especially appeal to them. Can you do better than to pitch your tents with ours in this campaign? Will it not be well to administer another defeat to these gentlemen who have foisted themselves upon you and who dominate your party organization? Will it not be easier, if you dethrone them by defeat in November, to take charge of your party and reorganize it for the campaign of 1908? If you unhorse them once more, will you not have done with them for good? By so doing you will not win a party victory this time, but you will have materially advanced the cause of good government in Indiana, and, in the language of Mr. Holtzman, you will have put yourselves "in a position to accept victory with clean hands when it does come."

As for myself, I have more confidence in the conversion and regeneration of the Republican party along civic lines than I have in theirs. I was present and saw the Republican conversion. In fact, I was preachin' at the meetin' where it occurred, when the blessing came, and I have an abiding confidence in its genuineness and in its lasting qualities.

If you believe in the policies and the things I have presented and really desire their completed accomplishment, can you do better than to stand by the present administration by giving it administrative officers in sympathy with it, and a general assembly that will put its hopes into law? The history of the race demonstrates, and o-knowledge of the human heart teach-us, that as a rule it is better for child that its care and custody be committed to its father than to give it into the hands of strangers. In the light of that experience and of that teaching I submit to you the final question: "Will it not be better to entrust these things with the present administration than to give them into the hands of Thomas Taggart of French Lick and Alonzo Greene Smith?"

COUNTY NEWS

Arlington.

Mrs. R. H. Moore has rented her dwelling house in the west end of town to W. W. Powell, of Knights-town, who will move here in a short time. We are always glad to welcome such citizens as Mr. Powell.

Mrs. R. H. Moore will soon move to her property in Rushville. We will lose one of our substantial citizens when Mrs. Moore leaves us. She will leave very many friends here who will most certainly regret to see her leave, but will wish her success in her new home.

John S. Matthews was admitted to the bar of the Rush county circuit court by Judge Sparks on last Thursday.

N. R. Farlow killed a fine specimen of a grey eagle just east of Elihu Price's residence Friday morning which measured 7 feet 6 inches from tip to tip. Mr. Farlow intends to have the bird mounted.

Harvey Edwards, a former resident of this township and county but later and now a resident of Elwood, Madison county, was back Thursday and Friday visiting his relatives and friends. He is just as lively and apparently as young as ever and as ready for a joke, a good laugh and a good time as he used to be in years gone by when the boys here enjoyed him so much. Come again and have a good time.

John S. Matthews has an old Bible between 170 and 200 years of which is quite a curiosity. The printing is all old style and very difficult to read. He will allow anyone to see it that calls and makes the request. He also has a ticket, the same that was used at the election of Gov. Brough in Ohio in 1860, which is quite a contrast to the present ballots used in our State elections. He will let anyone see it.

Henry Beckner, although blind, is one of the interesting men of Arlington. He can go any place over the county that he wants to and always knows where he is. He walked to Rushville today. He is engaged in selling goods of various kinds and makes a successful book agent. He has a very interesting family of three children, and he has the best and cleanest garden in Arlington and a fine poultry yard. He is always happy and contented. His wife is one of the bright, clever women of Arlington.

Miss Anna Stanley is visiting friends in Madison county.

Quite a number of the Arlington church people attended the union services at the fair grounds on Sunday. The meeting was very interesting and all appeared to enjoy themselves.

Houses are in demand in Arlington and others would move to town if they could find houses. A minister in the Christian Union church wants to come to Arlington, but so far has been unable to get a house. Why don't some of the capitalists build more houses? Rental property will pay better than to loan money. Ranger.

Lewis Barber and Frank Cupp spent last week in the northern part of Rush county sight seeing.

Some men can be everything, while others can be nothing. Rev. Kuhn was a Prohibition, a preacher, and is now a Democrat, all in three short years. Who knows what he will be in three more years—probably crazy.

Isaac Goble and Sarah Siders visited old friends here part of last week.

Several from here attended the social at Cracker Ridge Saturday night given by the scholars and teacher, Miss Zula Davison. They report a very fine time.

About thirty witnesses were called to Brookville last Friday on the pike case. Two were called to testify.

The case was set aside until the first Tuesday in October when they will all be called back to our county seat.

Another half mile of the pike has been finished, making in all one mile ready for the county commissioners to receive. It is said that suit will be brought against them on the last half as was done on the first half.

School began here Monday, all going fine except the Bulltown school. A wagon was sent from here Monday morning to bring all scholars here to school. All seemed to be willing at the time the wagon was hired, and even some of the patrons made bids on the hauling of the children. When the wagon returned only one scholar was in the wagon. Now they say they must have a teacher and will at the hands of the law. They have many scholars now from the age of 5 to 20 and last winter they only had a general average of 9½ at the age of 6 to 14. A change of mind and a political scheme.

It seems to us that there ought to be a law to prohibit the changing of school books every year. This has caused more annoyance in our schools among the scholars and patrons than anything else. A great many scholars who could go to school another year in our common schools quit on account of having to get a new supply of books every term of school.

Rev. Taylor, of Clarksburg, preached his last sermon at Clarksburg Sunday night. He will attend conference at Greensburg this week. His wife, who has been in very poor health the past year with hemorrhages of the lungs has taken a relapse and it is feared that serious results will follow.

Billy Angle, who purchased part of the Brim estate recently of W. M. Emsweller, says he has never gotten any deed for it yet, but that he has a written contract with Emsweller that he is to get a warrant deed from Reibold at Laurel. There seems to be some deficiencies in the deal which proves to be dissatisfactory to the parties. Mr. Angle gave notice to Emsweller not to cut any more timber on the farm until the contract was settled.

LET THE EAGLE SCREAM

King of Birds Looks Well on the Label of the King of Cigars.

It is not often that the cigar store has a lot of eagles, but Thos. W. Lytle when he received his stock of Wadsworth Bros. Chicos cigars found that a handsome eagle decorated the box. It is very appropriate he says to have the King of Birds on the label of the King of Cigars. This is one that pleases all who love a good smoke, yet it sells for only 5c. Smokers who used to pay ten to fifteen cents for cigars now puff up the Chicos, and are better pleased and satisfied.

Try a Chico and you will thank Thos. W. Lytle for recommending the cigar.
